

Kerstin Eklund

My name is Kerstin Eklund and I live in Stockholm with my husband and at the moment two golden retrievers.

I compete in Dog Dancing or as we call it in Sweden- Freestyle- for the first time in 2011 and have since then been a proud and dedicated dancer with my dogs.

I do train and compete in all disciplines in Dog Dancing Freestyle, Heelwork to Music and Teamwork to Music at highest level.

I have been a part in the Swedish team in 2014 and 2016 in freestyle.

Our proudest moments in competition were becoming Nordic Champion in 2014 in Freestyle with my late golden Miles and Swedish Champion in Teamwork To Music several times with my team.

I became a judge in 2015 and have since then done a lot of judging in Sweden. Now I am very much looking forward to judge the European Open Championship in Stuttgart. It's gonna be so exciting!
I wish all competitors the best of luck!
